

Please do not implement any changes that directly affect Indiana's very succesful program that has eliminated solicitating phone calls at my residence. Before enaction of the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law, I was inundated daily with phone calls from companies wanting to sell goods and services that I had not requested. Leave this excellent program alone please.